Ham & Cheese Crescent Rolls

Thu Sep 18 2014, 08:28pm

This is a quick easy recipe that is great for breakfast or as a snack. It reheats well, so I like to make it ahead and pop in the microwave for my kids breakfast.

1/2# Ham, shaved
8 slices of American Cheese (or your favorite)
1 roll of refrigerated crescent rolls mustard
dill

-unroll the crescent rolls and place on a greased cooking sheet, flat
-add mustard, ham, & cheese
-roll up- I like to fold the corners in
-top with dill (optional)
-and bake until slightly golden brown
